

Daryl G. Krause, CPA, BBA

Mr. Krause has CPA certifications in Indiana and Ohio. He practices public accounting as manager and CEO of his CPA firm, DG Krause LLC, headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. Founded by Daryl in 2005, DG Krause LLC has been a member of the AICPA's Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center since 2005 and performs employee benefit plan audit services for which Daryl serves as the sign-off partner.

Since 2008, Daryl has led 500 plus CPE programs for the AICPA, Surgent, the Ohio Society of CPAs, Indiana CPA Society, and other state societies, as well as in-house programs sponsored by firms and organizations. He was recognized as a Surgent Outstanding Discussion Leader during the 2021, 2020 and 2018 CPE seasons. He was recognized as an AICPA and CIMA Outstanding Facilitator during 2021. He has led live programs in 36 states and the District of Columbia, and also led virtual programs open to participants from all 50 states thereby facilitating the learning of thousands of CPAs.

He has performed technical reviews during the development of certain AICPA CPE programs, and has been chosen to instruct CPE programs for the AICPA's own professional staff. He is the author (and webcast presenter for the 8-hour program) of the AICPA's primary 8- and 4-hour CPE programs Leases: Mastering the New FASB Requirements and The Bottom Line on the New Lease Accounting Requirements for 2018 through 2022. He is the author (and webcast presenter for the 4-hour program) of the AICPA's recently developed program Conducting a Remote Audit. He was the Content Matter Expert for AICPA's Accounting Trends & Techniques Employee Benefit Plans – Best Practices in Presentation and Disclosure – Sixth Edition (2016), and a contributing author to the AICPA's CPE Direct quarterly materials. He was a speaker and developed content for a session at the AICPA's National Employee Benefit Plans Conference in May 2017.

Previously he enjoyed 23 years of diversified responsibilities with Ernst & Young. Industries he served included manufacturing, construction, real estate, and financial services. Roles included Ohio Valley Area Director of Employee Benefit Plan Services; Senior Manager in the Entrepreneurial Services group; and Senior Manager in National Professional Development group, which involved designing, developing and delivering core curriculum Audit and Entrepreneurial Services CPE training programs for the entire U.S. practice. Mr. Krause holds a Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.
